Sadler's Joy Makes the Grade in the Pan American (G2)

Coming off a runner-up performance in his stakes debut last time out in the W. L. McKnight (G3), Sadler's Joy, owned by Woodslane Farm, unleashed a powerful move on the far turn and muscled his way to a win in the Grade 2 Pan American contested at a mile and a half at Gulfstream. Earlier in the day, Whispering Oaks Farm's Eden Grey's Kitten won the Costa Rising Stakes going five and a half furlongs at the Fair Grounds. Two new Stakes Winners on the 1st of April for Leading Sire Kitten's Joy ... and that's no April Fool's joke.

World Class.
