

Oscar Performance winning the Secretariat S.(G1) at Arlington.

World Class Performance

Amerman Racing's three year old homebred Oscar Performance, winner of the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf (G1) last season, lands his third straight stakes of the year and third career Grade 1 victory. The win against a world class field which included three starters from Europe, establishes him as a leading candidate for the Eclipse Award in his division and advanced his earnings to $1,737,632. The Secretariat S. (G1) was won by both Kitten's Joy and Admiral's Kitten.
